Missionary's Message

I give thanks to my God for every remembrance of you, always praying with joy for all of you in my every prayer, because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. I am sure of this, that he who started a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus. Indeed, it is right for me to think this way about all of you, because I have you in my heart... (Philippians 1:3-7a)

As I close out this season as Associational Missionary, the Scripture printed above from Philippians is an accurate reflection of how I feel about the opportunity God has given me to serve the churches of the South Roanoke Baptist Association (SRBA) over the last 8½ years. My heart is full of gratitude to God for the relationships I have been able to build with pastors and laity in SRBA churches. It has been a high privilege to work with various team leaders and members that have served in our association. I am also thankful for the ministry of Linda Franks. She has been a wealth of knowledge as it relates to the history of the SRBA and many individual churches. Her approach to her role is one of ministry, not just a job.

As God transitions the SRBA into a new season of ministry, will you commit to the following?

- 1. Pray: This should go without saying, but it is vital to the future ministry of the association. Pray for the Associational Missionary Search Team as they are being assembled to work on behalf of the SRBA. Pray for the next Associational Missionary. Pray for our Leadership Council. Pray for our churches to be unified.
- 2. Partner: I'm so thankful for the spirit of unity that exists among the churches and pastors that participate in the SRBA. Continue building that unity. Stay connected to the association, remembering that the SRBA is not located at 606 Country Club Drive in Greenville. The SRBA is located throughout a 7 county region in Eastern NC, and its impact reaches to the ends of the earth. Financially, the SRBA is in a healthy place, so please continue with your generous contributions.
- 3. Celebrate: As I said at our spring gathering, we must move beyond cooperation. We can cooperate with others and not really like it (or them). Genuinely celebrating others is a true sign of organizational health. So, let's openly celebrate the work God is doing in and through our sister churches. I know that I'll be cheering you on!

WMU NEWS

With people going in so many different directions, it can be challenging to get everyone on the same page with a missions project. 'Christmas in August' can be a great solution!

Go to wmu.com/christmasinaugust for information and to view a list of missionaries. Once you have chosen the missionary project, publicize needed items, with the goal of collecting the items in August and shipping them in early September.

As always, if I can be of any help, let me know!
Corby Bunting, Association WMU Director
